New, Spring-start Cohort: This cohort will accept 18 students to begin each spring, with applications due January 10th, 2013, for best consideration. Classes will be held during the evening.

*Certificate students may complete the 15 credits of related instruction / general education courses before or after the Massage program.

*Degree students may complete the 36 credits of related instruction / general education and elective courses before or after the Massage Program. See the schedule below for other quarters not devoted to the massage curriculum.

Fall-start Cohort: This cohort will continue to accept 18 students to begin each fall quarter, with applications due in spring quarter, for best consideration.

*Degree students may complete the 36 credits of related instruction / general education and elective courses before or after the Massage Program.

For both cohorts, selection is still first come, first served, for complete applications. In other words, the sooner a complete application is submitted, the more likely a student will be selected into the program. Below is a sample sequence for each cohort:
